Meeting of the Mekong-Ganga Cooperation (MGC) countries in June, 2003, has progressed during the last seventeen months;

(b) if so, the status thereof;

(c) the estimated schedule of completion of the study;

(d) the estimated schedule of completion of pre-feasibility study for the proposed rail project; and

(e) the salient features of the proposed rail link along with details of benefits expected to accrue to the people of the countries when so linked?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) and (b) Yes. As a first step, RITES Ltd. have been asked to carry out a feasibility study of the missing rail links between India and Myanmar. RITES Ltd. have completed the field study on the Myanmar side and are currently engaged in the field studies on the Indian side.

(c) and (d) The feasibility study being undertaken by RITES Ltd. is expected to be completed by January 2005.

(e) The salient features of the proposed rail link are laying of missing links and restoration/upgradation of existing links. Rail connectivity is expected to promote intra-regional trade, foster economic and social integration, facilitate movement of goods and enhance people to people contacts. This would be of particular benefit to the eastern and north-east regions of India.
